Preparing for the next CAP

Member Webinar Series Schedule
All commence at 11am

Thursday 15th October

Prof Alan Matthews; Professor Emeritus of European Agricultural Policy in the Department of Economics, School of Social Sciences and Philosophy at Trinity College
'The future of CAP; its importance to Ireland, its financing and objectives'

Tuesday 20th October

Patrick Barrett - DAFM Agricultural Inspector, Research Division, Bioeconomy, Agriculture Knowledge & Innovation Systems:
'Agri-digitalisation, the circular bio economy and AKIS in a modern farming era'

Friday 23rd October

Bill Callanan - Chief Inspector DAFM
'Agriculture and the Environment - a DAFM perspective on key challenges and opportunities'

Tuesday 27th October

Jenny Deakin - Senior Catchment Scientist at Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)
'Agriculture and the environment: moving forward – state and trends of key environmental indicators'

Friday 30th October

Julie Bolton and Caroline Garvan - Veterinary Inspectors DAFM
'Antimicrobial Resistance and Antiparasitic Resistance - current and future policy'

Tuesday 3rd November

Fintan O'Brien - Principal Officer DAFM
'European Innovation Partnership (EIP) projects in Ireland and opportunities for ACA members'

Thursday 5th November

Forestry - Speaker to be confirmed
'Forestry and Farming - economic and environmental benefits working side by side from a farmer perspective'

Other planned webinars:

- Farm ecosystems and biodiversity
- Farm Succession and Regeneration
- Income supports and sustainability

ACA members must register for each webinar in advance with the ACA Secretariat Office